Foreign Office June 23. 1849.

Sir—

I have had the honor to receive the letter which you addressed to me from Guaya on the 22^d ultimo, and in which you state that you have resigned your mission as the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Republic of New Granada at this Court; and that as it is not in your power to return immediately to this Country, you inclose to me your letter of recall for the purpose of being presented to the Queen.

I beg to acquaint you that I have not failed to lay that letter before Her Majesty, and that Her Majesty has been pleased to address to the President of the Republic of New Granada a letter in reply, expressing Her entire satisfaction with your language and conduct during your mission at Her Court.

In taking my leave of you in your official character, I have great pleasure in assuring you of my esteem, and in renewing to you the expression of the high consideration with which

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient humble servant

Palmerston.
